

"BARGAIN CLUB" To Our Readers

A very special arrangement with the publishers of HAMPTON'S MAGAZINE of New York, makes it possible for us to offer our regular readers, old and new, a most extraordinary "NEWSPAPER-MAGAZINE BARGAIN CLUB." The offer is limited, so you must act quickly. Simply subscribe for this paper one year in advance and you get:

- (1) THE BEST HOME PAPER IN TOWN, (for your purpose it's the best paper in the State because it has all the home news you want to know);
- (2) HAMPTON'S MAGAZINE, The Best Treat of 1911 In Magazine Reading—

the two one full year at a big reduction in price. Many have already asked—"How can you afford to do it?" We have gone to some trouble to arrange this special "Bargain Offer" for the benefit of our readers who are now selecting their reading matter for the coming year. We are using our valuable time and space to tell you of this wonderful money-saving opportunity and we want you to show your appreciation by sending in your order promptly. Your friends will consider it a favor if you will bring this offer to their attention before it expires. Persuade three or more of your friends to accept this offer and we will enter your own subscription for this "BARGAIN CLUB" one full year with our compliments. Special terms to agents on application. You already know why you should read the best home paper in town for 1911—here are a few reasons why you should read and why you will want to read HAMPTON'S MAGAZINE for 1911:

WHY Did Dr. Cook Disappear?

Was not this a tactful admission that he had presented a fraudulent claim to the discovery of the North Pole? Or did he ever possibly believe in himself? Where, in his absence, has he been; what has he done?

These questions

KEYTESVILLE. MISSOURI

Journalism Week at the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri will be held April 17-20.

The Missouri Press Association will hold a shop talk meeting Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 18. On these days will be held a cost congress, having special reference to the production cost problems of the country publisher.

The third day, Wednesday, April 19 will be devoted to the County Weekly; the fourth day, April 20, to the near City Daily; and the fifth day, April 21, to the Metropolitan Daily.

Addressees will be delivered each day by eminent journalists. Among those already on the program are Henry Wallace, of Wallace's Farmer; Charles H. Grasty, of the Baltimore Sun; Gilbert M. Hitchcock, of the Omaha World Herald, United States Senator-elect from Nebraska; Lafayette Young, of the Des Moines Capital, United States Senator from Iowa; William F. Parrott, of the Waterloo, Iowa, Reporter; B. B. Herbert, of the National Printer-Journalist; Oswald Garrison Villard, of the New York Evening Post.

Special discussion on practical questions of importance to journalists, in which Missouri editors and publishers will take part, are planned for each day. D. J. McAuliffe, of the St. Louis Republic, B. E. Bradley, of the St. Louis Star, Casper Yost, of the Globe-Democrat, Hal Gaylord, of the Kansas City Journal, G. B. Longan, Jr., of the Kansas City Star, Mrs. C. A. Bonfils (Winifred Black), of the Kansas City Post, will represent the metropolitan press. The country press will be equally as well represented. Complete program will be sent out later.

The Wabash, M., K. & T., C. Missouri Pacific, and Frisco

co railroads will issue transportation to and from Columbia, payable in advertising, to editors of Missouri newspapers and dependent members of their families who wish to attend Journalism Week. Write the general passenger agent.

The week will be the most notable assemblage of newspaper men and newspaper women ever held in Missouri. The addresses and discussions cannot fail to be of great value to anyone interested in journalism.

It is singularly apropos that the decorations of Pennsylvania's capitol should be naked. Justice is usually represented as clothed.

CHAMP CLARK says: "I like to praise a Republican when I can find one who deserves it, but it does not keep me busy all the time."

It might be said in passing, if the congress which will soon convene has its way there will be a tremendous difference in the cost of living.

THE earth is a tender and kind mother to the farmer; yet, at one season, he harrows her bosom and at another plucks her ears.

A man in New York, who attempted to hug a beautiful young woman, Miss Lemon, has sued her for striking him in the eye. Why should a fellow steal a lemon unless he wants a punch?

SOME senators speak of the proposed amendment to the constitution for their direct election by the people as revolutionary. Who was the constitution made by, any way, and what is the sovereign power of the people?

PRESIDENT TAFT sent a message to the tramp's convention in Milwaukee, famous for its thirt allying products, advising the men where they could get work. Even a president will occasionally make a faux pas.

If you own deep water on your place, you can seine it when the spirit moves you aright, provided Mr. Simmons' bill passed by the House, runs the Senate gauntlet in safety. This bill provides that a man may fish or seine in any waters owned by himself, be they still overflow or running water whenever the love of the finny tribe seizes him with a desire so to do.

THE Easter season comes on comparatively late this year. Ash Wednesday came on March 1, Palm Sunday on April 9 and Easter Sunday on April 16. Pentecost day is on June 4. Memorial day and the Fourth of July fall on Tuesday. Labor day is Sept. 4 and Christmas falls on Monday. During 1911 there will be two eclipses of the sun, but not one of the moon. The first will be visible here and dates April 28. The second an annual eclipse, is not visible in America.
